8:30AM - 3:00PM | Upper Elementary

Join us in Downtown Chattanooga—the Birthplace of the Medal of Honor.

REAL STORIES, REAL INSPIRATION

"I didn't care about me. I cared about my men. I'd do anything for them."

- Charles H. Coolidge, WWII Medal of Honor Recipient

Gallery Immersion

Through the powerful stories of ordinary people who accomplished extraordinary things, history is brought to life along our gallery timeline.

Lesson Exploration

Participate in multiple sessions highlighting elementary lessons designed by our 2023 Teacher Fellows.

Programs Overview

We offer a variety of field trip options tailored to teacher needs and a yearly Teacher Fellowship program.

About us

We leverage our local history, geography, cultures, and experiences to engage students in the learning process outside the traditional classroom. Our WHY is to inspire all generations to be the best versions of themselves.

Why Attend?

- ✓ Experience an in-depth tour of our gallery highlighting compelling MOH recipient stories
- ✓ Engage in a series of adaptable instructional strategies and hands-on activities
- ✓ Walk away with standards-aligned lessons ready for classroom use
